- Provides epidemiological support towards the design, implementation, and evaluation of the AASTEC Good Health and Wellness Program, which aims to promote effective and culturally adapted policies, systems, and environmental improvements towards the prevention of heart disease, type 2 diabetes and associated risk factors, such as commercial tobacco use, physical inactivity, and unhealthy diet among American Indian Tribes.
- Provides consultation and technical assistance to health related research projects conducted by or involving area Indian health programs.
- Provides epidemiologic technical assistance to other AAIHB projects and other area Indian health programs.
- Participates in carrying out other priorities, plans, programmatic objectives, and policy formulations of AASTEC, especially as related to needed skills in statistical analysis, health care planning, surveillance systems, and public health improvement.
- Abide by the AAIHB policies, procedures.
- Performs other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Applicant must have at a minimum a Master of Public Health (MPH) degree in Epidemiology, Doctorate of Public Health (Dr. P.H.) degree or Ph.D. in Epidemiology, or M.D.-M.P.H. combination preferred, with two years experience in epidemiologic investigation and analysis.
- Must demonstrate a solid understanding of the state of the art of epidemiology and statistics.
- Must demonstrate knowledge of disease surveillance systems including design, implementation, and evaluation.
- Must demonstrate a thorough knowledge of standard epidemiologic computer software such as SPSS, SAS, STATA or Epi Info.
- Must understand the requirements for and methods of ensuring protection of human subjects in research.
- Must demonstrate leadership qualities in identifying medical, statistical, surveillance, public health, and research needs, planning and conducting projects, and in reporting results and findings.
- Must demonstrate discretion, tact, knowledge, judgment, and overall ability in working effectively with federal, tribal, and other professionals and facilitating participation and partnership in the activities of the program.
- Must be able to communicate effectively medical, statistical, and public health concepts to medical and non-medical persons.
- Must be highly organized and able to carry out all responsibilities of the position with minimal day to day supervision.
- Must be sensitive to cross-cultural differences, and able to work effectively within their context.
- Ability to organize and manage multiple priorities.
- Ability to communicate effectively orally and in writing.
- Proficient public speaking skills.

- Demonstrated ability to develop and maintain effective working relationships.
- Ability to operate a motor vehicle and have a valid State driver's license.

WORK CONDITIONS/PHYSICAL REQUIREMENTS:

Must be able to perform, but not limited to the following:
